

A little more room to live.

A thoughtful home-care concept

Fictional sales presentation / portfolio sample

Your home should feel like a place to return to.

A clear service. A considered routine.
More space for the things that matter.

A service that fits your home.

Regular

A reliable reset for your everyday spaces.

Deep

A considered clean
when you need more.

Moving

A fresh start at either end of your move.

Clear from the first step.

01 Tell us about your space

02 Choose your service

03 Review the next step

Small details. A considered result.

A room-by-room checklist

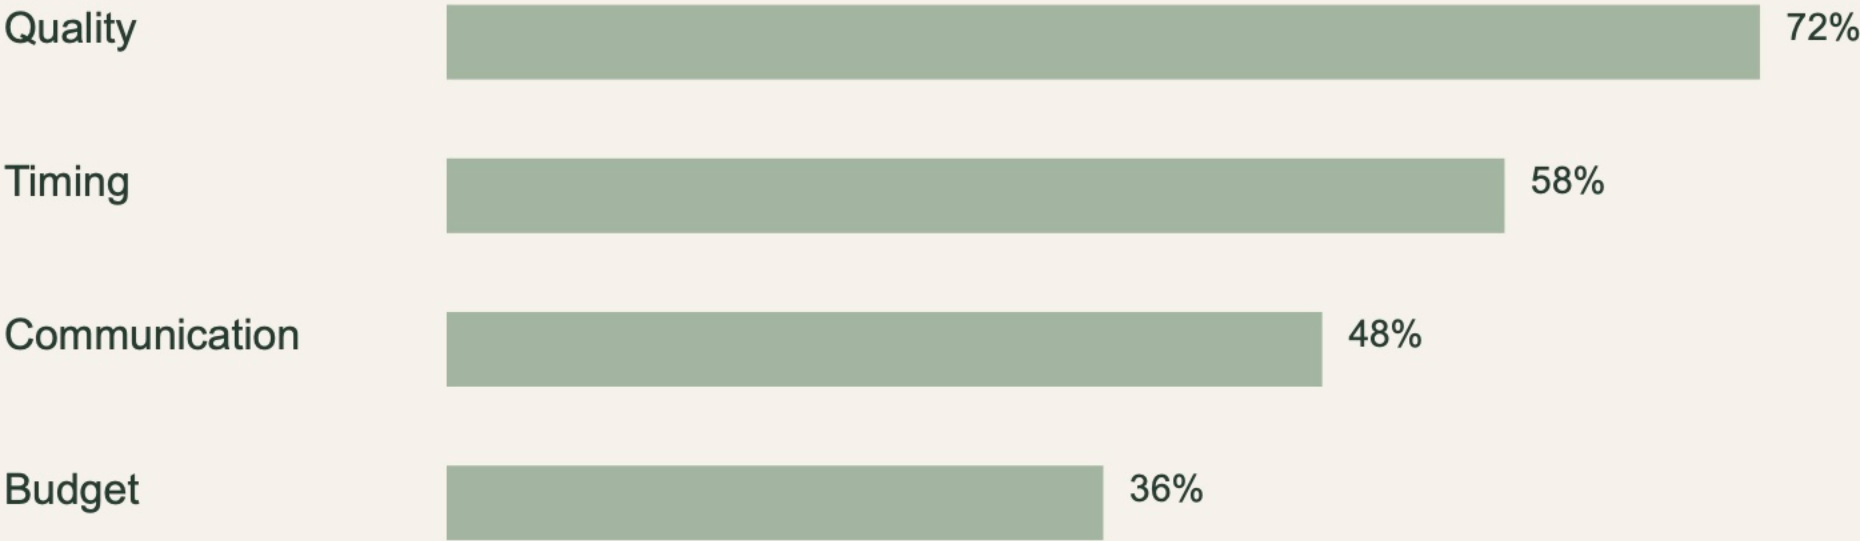

A clear arrival window

An easy way to share preferences

Make priorities visible.

Illustrative preference data — invented for this chart sample.

A price you can understand.

$120

Illustrative standard-clean estimate

Base	$60
2 bedrooms	$40
1 bathroom	$20

Sample formula only. This fictional brand does not accept bookings or payments.

One calm identity. Every touchpoint.

From the first website visit to product details,
a consistent visual language makes the experience feel connected.

Thoughtful service starts with a few good questions.

What does your space need most?

What would make your routine easier?

What should we know before we begin?

Make room for your day.

A clear next step. A calmer everyday.

FIELD / Original concept by Jake Shore